

PURCHASE ORDER TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Applies to the following markets; Argentina, Australia, Canada, Colombia, Malaysia, Mexico, Philippines, Singapore, UAE

- 1. Acceptance: Unless this order or contract ("Order") is issued under a written procurement agreement between Buyer and Seller, this Order, these terms, and any documents attached hereto are the sole and exclusive understanding between Buyer and Seller concerning the goods and services (collectively, "Goods") purchased hereunder. Seller's written acceptance of this Order or commencement of any work or service under this Order shall constitute Seller's acceptance of these terms. All additional or different terms proposed by Seller are expressly rejected by Buyer, and shall not become a part of this Order, unless agreed in writing by Buyer. Any modifications to this Order shall be made only in writing and signed by duly authorized representatives of Buyer and Seller (the "Parties").
- 2. Prices and Taxes: Seller's price indicated in this Order is the sole price applicable to the Goods. Seller's price for the Goods hereunder will not be in excess of (a) the maximum which Seller may charge under applicable government regulations, and (b) the price Seller charges other customers purchasing similar quantities of the same or similar items. Unless otherwise provided in this Order, prices are D.D.P. (Buyer's facility) (Incoterms 2010) and include all freight charges and all federal, state and local taxes and duties now or hereafter enacted. If Buyer otherwise agrees to pay any such tax or duty, Seller shall invoice such applicable taxes and duties separately unless Buyer furnishes Seller with exemption certificates.
- 3. Packing and Delivery: Seller shall at its expense package all Goods to insure safe arrival at ultimate destination, secure lowest freight costs, and comply with requirements of common carriers. Seller shall comply with all of Buyer's labeling and documentation requirements, including clearly marking Buyer's Order numbers, part numbers, quantities and symbols on all invoices, packages, and bills of lading. Shipping memoranda or packing lists shall accompany Goods. Buyer's count or weight shall be conclusive on shipments not accompanied by a packing list. Bills of lading or shipping receipt shall be sent to Buyer on date of shipment. Seller shall bear all excess transportation or other charges and costs resulting from failure to follow Buyer's routing instructions and delivery schedules. Unless otherwise provided in this Order, Seller shall ship Goods D.D.P. (Buyer's facility) (Incoterms 2010) and title shall pass to Buyer upon its receipt of the Goods. Seller has no right to ship under reservation.
- 4. Delivery Schedules: Seller shall make deliveries during Buyer's general business hours in quantities and at times specified in the Order or Buyer's delivery schedules. Time is of the essence in this Order. Buyer shall not be required to pay for Goods delivered in excess of quantities specified in the Order or Buyer's delivery schedules. Such excess deliveries are entirely at Seller's risk and may be returned at Seller's expense. Buyer may change the rate of or temporarily suspend scheduled shipments, neither of which shall entitle the Seller to a modification of the price for Goods covered by this Order. For Orders of Goods where quantities and/or delivery schedules are not specified, Seller shall deliver Goods in such quantities and at such times as Buyer may direct in subsequent releases.
- 5. Changes: Buyer reserves the right at any time to direct or make changes to drawings and specifications of the Goods or to otherwise change the scope of the work covered by this Order, and Seller agrees to promptly make such changes. Any difference in price or time for performance resulting from such changes shall be equitably adjusted by agreement of the parties.

6. Inspection: Goods shall be subject to inspection by Buyer at all reasonable times, including inspection during manufacture. Inspection and approval by Buyer at Seller's plant does not preclude rejection for defects by subsequent inspection.

7. Warranty: Seller warrants that the Goods conform to the specifications, drawings, samples or other descriptions furnished to or agreed by Buyer; that they are of good material and workmanship and free from defects; that they are new and unused; that they are of merchantable quality; that they shall not contain and are not formulated with raw materials known to contain asbestos; that, if Seller is or reasonably should be aware of Buyer's intended use for the Goods, they are fit for such particular purpose; that services shall be performed by qualified personnel; and that the Goods will be free of all liens and encumbrances. Seller warrants that it is conveying good title to all Goods. If Seller is responsible for design, Seller warrants that such Goods are free from defects in design and are fit and sufficient for the purposes intended by Buyer. Approval by Buyer of designs furnished by Seller shall not relieve Seller of its obligation under this warranty. Inspection, testing or use of Goods shall not affect this warranty. Seller shall supply certificates of compliance with specifications or certified analyses, if requested by Buyer. Seller's warranty shall be effective for the period of time set forth on the face of the Order or, if no such period of time is set forth, for a period of two (2) years after date of acceptance of such Goods. Any Goods rejected by Buyer shall be promptly repaired, corrected or replaced at Seller's expense. Seller shall bear all expenses in connection with the return of Goods rejected by Buyer, and shall bear all risk of loss or damage to Goods while in transit. This warranty shall run to Buyer, its successors, assigns, customers and the users of its products and shall not be deemed to be exclusive.

8. Force Majeure: If a party is prevented from performing its obligations hereunder as a result of governmental actions or regulations, fires, strikes, accidents, acts of God or other causes beyond the reasonable control of that party, such obligations shall be suspended for the period during which such conditions continue to exist, provided that the party affected uses reasonable and diligent efforts to avoid and remedy the impacts of such force majeure event. Buyer may change or cancel without penalty any Order delayed by a force majeure event and/or immediately seek alternative sources of supply without being in breach hereof, and any such purchases shall be included within any Buyer volume commitments.

as specified by Buyer; or (c) fails to make progress so as to endanger timely and proper completion or delivery of Goods and does not correct such failure within ten (10) days (or such shorter period of time if commercially reasonable under the circumstances) after receipt of written notice thereof from Buyer.

11. Termination: Buyer may terminate all or any part of this Order without cause by giving written notice to Seller. Upon such termination, Buyer shall pay to Seller the following amounts without duplication: (a) the price for all Goods completed and delivered in accordance with this Order and not previously paid for; and (b) the actual costs of work in process Goods and raw materials purchased by Seller to supply the Goods under this Order, but only to the extent such costs are reasonable in amount, properly allocable or apportionable under generally accepted accounting principles to the terminated portion of this Order, do not exceed the aggregate price for finished Goods, do not include amounts relating to damaged or destroyed Goods or materials, and the Goods and materials cannot reasonably be used for other purposes or sold to other customers (with Buyer's written permission). Seller shall furnish to Buyer proper evidence of such insurance upon request.
